From Our Baron and Baroness

Unto Ansteorra's premier populace do Baron Ihon & Baroness Isabeau send their best wishes and felicitations.

It appears the worst of Summer is behind us as we move into the Autumn Tourney Season. We'll be attending Defender of the Fort in Raven's Fort and Loctoberfest II in Loch Soillier this month. Also, I'm sure all of Stargate will want to support our seafaring commander, Sir Francis Drake (HE Don Robert MacPharland, OP) at the Battle of the Three Commanders, October 2nd in Rosenfeld; Ihon will be among the Bardic Judges.

Stargate was well represented at Laurel's Prize Tourney with entries from Mistress Hillary Greenslade, HL Cristyana Lambrecht, and HL Simone Valery la Rousse. Hellsgate put on an outstanding event, albeit a bit crowded, with 40 artisans, 26 Laurels and a gate of approximately 175 attendees.

We extend our appreciation to all who joined us at Arts Day, Sunday August 29th at St. Giles Presbyterian Church: HL Alden Drake, HL Anne Barrington, HL Fedelm ni Uldhir, HL Thomas atte Woode, HL Simone Valery la Rousse, HE Genvieve McCullum de Caen, Lord Fenris of Twycross, Lady Caitilin inghean Ronain ui Cheallaigh, Lady Isolde die Waeyer, M'Lady Jennifer Curtis (a newcomer and friend of Isolde's who had never been to anything related to SCA before), M'lady Margali, and M'Lord Xeno Belisarius. Quite a bit was accomplished and consensus was that we should do more of these indoor arts days. Thank you all for coming.

Please have your bids ready for Yule, should you desire to Steward the event. Our Seneschal, HL Alden Drake has stepped forward to offer his services as head cook and we are aware of one potential bid as event steward.

We look forward to seeing you all at populace and at the September Events!

Yours in service,

~i&I~

Lord & Lady of Stargate

From Our Seneschal

---

Greetings to the Populace of Stargate and all good neighbors near and far!

September is a busy month on the Kingdom Calendar, as the summer winds down and the autumn event season begins to pick up. Close to home, the Barony of Raven's Fort will be holding their Defender event the weekend of the 17-19th and Loch Soilleir will be hosting Lochtoberfest the 24-26th. I hope to see many Stargaters supporting our good neighbors!

Bids for Stargate Yule were due August 31. The financial committee will be reviewing the bids received and will announce our decision as soon as we can to get the ball rolling for Yule. It's only 3 months away! I would like to encourage everyone to step up and volunteer to make it a fantastic event.

September Populace is going to be on September 13th, due to the first Monday being a holiday (Labor Day). Be sure to mark your calendars!

Lastly, I am still looking for ideas of fun activities we can do as a group. These can be SCA activities or non-SCA things. Email me any ideas you have and let's plan an activity!

In Service,

HL Alden Drake
Stargate Seneschal

Silent Auction at Gate's Edge Celtic Harvest Faire

---

At the upcoming Gate's Edge Celtic Harvest Faire & Royal Huntsman Tournament (October 8-10, 2010), Cynthia of Gate's Edge, Ciarnat of Firethorn, and Leofwine of Summersaetum will be hosting a silent auction. Engenulf de Vienville's son Brendan is in transition as a patient at Texas Children's Hospital and TIRR (a rehabilitation facility). Brendan has been afflicted with life-threatening conditions in conjunction with a serious incident that occurred in June 2010. He has been hospitalized since then and is currently a patient at both previously mentioned medical facilities. The proceeds of this silent auction will go to Engenulf to assist with the payment of his son's medical expenses.

How you can help? Please look in all of your closets, garages, cabinets, beneath beds, and in attics and storage rooms for items you can donate to the silent auction. Look for items that SCAers would like to purchase. We have many newcomers entering our area and they could use any of your surplus items. Please e-mail Cynthia (cymills@baronbows.com) or Ciarnat (ciarnat@consolidated.net) with a list of the items so we can begin to prepare auction sheets to accompany the donated items. Then, please bring the donated items to the Gate's Edge event. Find the tables we will have set up for the silent auction and one or more of us will help you locate the auction sheets with your item's description printed on them.

Early thanks for any and all help in this project!

With a grateful spirit and in service,

Ciarnat of Firethorn

Modern and Medieval Travel

by Lady Caitilin inghean Ronain ui Cheallaigh

Did you know that:

We have Super Highways. In the Middle Ages, the Medieval Super Highways were built by the Romans – which stretched from Rome to all points of the Known World including Serbia and the British Isles.

We have Motels. In the Middle Ages, they were known as Road Houses, Post Houses and Inns.

We have AAA Travel Itineraries. In the Middle Ages, merchants used written itineraries to travel from town to town to trade and sell their goods.

We have Road Maps. In the Middle Ages, Merchants, Travelers and Government officials used road maps (some with names like portolans or mappae mundi), which included one map for a high official that was as big as a barn door.

We have Travel Guidebooks. In the Middle Ages, several well travelled scholars and merchants wrote travel narratives describing their travels for other travelers.

We have Traveler's Checks. In the late Middle Ages, many large banks and merchant consortiums used scrips, letters of mark or promissory notes that could be redeemed at a later destination.

(As the saying goes ... what is old is new again.)

Happy Travels!
